

This week we'd like to introduce another of the candidates running for office at the May 16 primary election. His name is Tom Keating. He is the incumbent state senator from Marin County. He is running for re-election.

Senator Keating was born in Sausalito in 1905. His father was sheriff of the county from 1911 to the date of his death in 1929. His grandparents settled in Marin County 80 years ago.

He was elected to the state senate in 1936 and was re-elected without opposition on both the Democratic and Republican tickets in 1940. He was a member of the Governor's Citizens' Committee on Old Age Pensions in 1943. He has served on many important senate committees at the state capital, including the chairmanship of Committee on Public Health. He is also a member of the state senate's committee on post-war reconstruction.

During the 1937 session of the legislature Keating secured legislation which made the fa-

1103 Are Registered To Vote

Total number of registered voters in Marin City for the May 16 primary election is 1103, according to an announcement made this week by County Clerk George Jones.

A total of 25,152 men and women in Marin County registered to vote at the primary, Jones said. Of these, 12,919 are Democrats, 11,342 are Republicans while the remainder either declined to state or are members of minority parties.

Three precincts will be used for voting by Marin City residents on May 16. One, Precinct 312, will be located at the Leitch Service Station at Waldo Point; another, 313, will be in the lobby of the Cafeteria Building in Marin City, while the third, 314, will be in the old school building behind the fire house.

Several Marin City residents were appointed by Jones to serve as election officials at the three precincts. Clerk of Precinct 312 will be Vernon Olson. Mrs. Rolf Bremer will be inspector of Precinct 313, while Mrs. Dan Allen will be judge of the same precinct. Lloyd La Breacht will be judge of Precinct 314 while Gordon Fowler will be precinct clerk.

"The Marin Citizen" Gets Office In Old CD Building

"The Marin Citizen" has an office for the convenience of Marin City residents. It is located in the old school building just in back of the Fire Station.

The staff of the paper this week invited everyone to come and get acquainted with the quarters and the staff members.

The office will be a handy place for Marin City people who prefer giving their news to a reporter, rather than writing it out for the news boxes.

The office will be open from 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m., with time out for lunch, Monday through Thursday every week.

There will be a telephone in the new editorial room but as it has not yet been installed the number is not available.

USES To Have Office Here Again Next Week

A United States Employment representative will again be at the USO Travelers' Aid Cottage this Wednesday, April 26, from 2 to 4 p.m. to interview Marin City people seeking employment.

Last week the USES representative, Miss Henrietta Danaceau, referred all the job-seekers to openings in Marin County.

Anyone seeking employment in service or industry is requested to register with her. Miss Danaceau said the possibility of openings will be as great this week as last.

Mrs. Harold J. Yates of the Medical Center staff and daughter Carolyn Joyce left last week for Hope, Arkansas where they will visit Mr. Yates' parents. Staff Sgt. Harold Yates, on furlough from the U. S. Army, accompanies them.

VICTORY PARADE

TELL ME PRETTY MAIDENS . . . !
Are there any more at Marinship like you. We should say so! These women war workers, representing more than twenty shipyard crafts, act as a guard of honor to the national Tanker Champ flag. The flag was presented to Marinship, the Sausalito, California shipyard, by the U. S. Maritime Commission for defeating all other U. S. shipyards in the production of tankers in March. This float was a unit in a triumphal parade led by the Fourth Army Band and joined in by 5,000 workers.

A Stitch In Time

Fletcher Ellebys Boost Medical Care

by JEAN BARDEN
The Fletcher Ellebys are boosters of Marin City's Medical Service now. It wasn't always that way. Last December Elleby decided that since the family had never used the Medical Service, they were foolish to continue to pay $5 per month for it. He went down to withdraw. Luckily for him, Milen Dempster, Housing Representative who handles those cases, was not in. They remained member of CPS.

On New Year's Day, six-year old Erma Jean Elleby, who had been ill since Christmas, suddenly turned violently sick with vomiting and a very high fever. At 4 p.m., Elleby called for a doctor. Since it was a holiday, he called 1220, where the nurse on duty took the call and called Nurse Bellak, on duty in the project. She immediately called at the house, and seeing that the child was seriously ill, sent for Dr. Long, the project's doctor on duty at the time. When he arrived at the house, he diagnosed a probable acute appendicitis, and promptly made arrangements for the child to be taken to the hospital for emergency surgery. "By 6:30 that same evening," Mrs. Elleby said, just two and one half hours from the time we first notified the Medical Center, Erma Jean had been operated on and her badly inflamed appendix removed.

When the surgeon who performed the operation did not feel the child was recovering as she should, he asked and gained permission from CPS to call in another doctor for consultation.

In due time, Erma Jean returned home, recuperating satisfactorily. The Ellebys thanked their lucky stars that they had not withdrawn from the Medical Service. But more was yet to come.

During the night of February 23, little Erma Jean again took sick. In the morning her mother bundled her up, and carried her down to the Medical Center, in very intense pain. The case was diagnosed as an obstruction of the bowels, and without any delay, she was again sent to the hospital, where for the second time in less than two months she underwent a major operation.

Surgeons fees alone for the two operations would have cost the Ellebys in excess of $500 had they not been members of CPS; their hospital bills would have been added to that. Because they were members of CPS, they paid only for the blood transfusions the child had, and for the special duty nurses who cared for her in the critical stages of her illness.

Said Mrs. Elleby, "I didn't want my husband to drop the medical service before; we are both very glad we didn't. No where else could we have gotten such prompt service, especially on a holiday like New Year's Day. I think this medical center is just grand—I tell all my friends about it."

Mike Is Back Again

Mike's Column is back. That statement will make many readers of "The Marin Citizen" happy for they have been asking us when it was again going to appear.

Turn to page eight and read what Mike's Column has to say about the coming school board election.

At NAHO Meet

Five local housing heads were away from Marin City this week at a conference of the National Association of Housing Officials in Los Vegas, Nev.

The fellow travelers were Judge Guy A. Ciocca, Merritt Webster, Gerry Craner, Milen Dempster and Clarence Law.

Private Whitwam Calls On English Cousins

Mrs. George Galbraith's nephew, Private Ward B. Whitwam, who is now stationed in England has contacted a whole new group of overseas relatives by the simple expedient of calling Whitwams listed in an English directory.

He writes his aunt that the distant cousins are introducing him to such typical British menus as roast beef, brussel sprouts, and Yorkshire pudding. Serving with a camouflage unit on detached service, young Ward is really seeing England while carrying on his Army duties, reports Mrs. Galbraith.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Land and son, Elmer, have moved to Lakeview, Ore.

To Move Bus Station Next Week

Marin City's bus station, busiest in the county, will soon be moved to its new location at the southeast corner of the Marin City ball park. Construction work starts next Monday.

All north and south bound Greyhound buses will be routed through the new station, which will also serve as a transfer point for north bound passengers. Eliminated will be the present stop on the opposite side of the highway from Marin City. Thus will also be eliminated a pedestrian hazard which has been of concern to the entire community. When the new station is in operation there will be no highway crossing for either north or south bound bus passengers.

Funds for paving and for the new access road will be provided by the Public Roads Administration, a Federal agency.

Funds for the new station will be provided by the Marin County Housing Authority and the Greyhound Lines.

Contractors for moving and construction of the new station are J. B. Biasotti and Sons of Stockton.

The project will be complete within the next three weeks.

Grammar School To Hold Dance This Saturday

Seventh and eighth graders will have their first dance party at the Community Center this Saturday, April 22, at 8 p.m.

School Superintendent and Mrs. Clifton Boyle, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Lindburg, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Walenta will serve as volunteer hosts and hostesses.

In addition to the usual social dancing, the program includes a pony express, rose dance, and other novelty features.

Admission for this first affair is 15 cents. This includes membership in the pre-Teener assembly. Subsequent admissions will be 10 cents if membership card is presented.

The dance parties will be held regularly once each month under sponsorship of the local Recreation Department.

Navigation To Be Topic Of Planned Class

First response to the proposed navigation class here was from Mrs. Florence Fast of the Marin City U.S.O. office.

If there are enough people interested in learning how to handle small boats, and how to read instruments and charts under the guidance of a skilled instructor, a class in navigation will begin here.

Those interested should drop a note to the Recreation Department, P. O. Box 236, or leave their names and addresses in "Marin Citizen" news boxes.

Mr. A. H. Beck of Minneapolis, Minn., is here visiting his daughter, Mrs. M. Robinson of A15. Mr. Beck speaks of his home State as the State of a Thousand Lakes, which is one thing that the Chamber of Commerce cannot claim for California.

mous Muir Woods road toll free. He also secured passage of a bill which made available to all counties in the State $1,500,000 for post-war surveys.

Keating is a registered Democrat. He will be that party's delegate to the National Democratic Convention at Chicago and will help nominate the Democratic candidate for President.

BAGSHAW SUPPORT

The Marin City Bagshaw-for-Supervisor Committee grew this week with the inclusion of more of the community's residents who want to see Fred Bagshaw returned as supervisor from this district.

Already members of the Bagshaw-for-Supervisor Committee are Council Chairman and Mrs. Dan Allen, Councilman and Mrs. W. C. Billingsley, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Smith, Mr. and Mrs. James San Jule.

Bagshaw, present chairman of the county board of supervisors, was a visitor at the last meeting of the Marin City Council and took the viewpoint of Marin City residents back to the board on issues of importance to the community.

Music Chest Gets Support For Program

With every district in the county completely organized, the Marin Music Chest opened its twelfth annual membership drive for funds last Monday. The drive will continue through May 1, and residents of Marin City can expect a call from Mrs. W. C. Billingsley, Mrs. Earl James, Mrs. A. W. Walenta, who are Music Chest representatives in this community, and who will undertake the pleasant duty of giving Marin City people the opportunity to purchase a membership in the most unique organization of its kind in the United States.

This is a new and refreshing kind of financial campaign. It is not linked with human distress; no grim spectre of disease or misery will be used to elicit contributions. Instead, the campaign is dedicated to beauty, to song, to music of the highest type, and to the perpetuation of human happiness and gaiety. A membership in the Marin Music Chest enables one to hear the greatest artists of concert and operatic stage, the greatest symphony orchestras and the finest ballets for the lowest possible admission price.

"Music now, more than ever," seems to be the slogan that has taken hold all over the world. The Chest is a non-profit organization and all workers are volunteers. No one gets paid but the artists. Five per cent of money taken in during the drive goes toward a scholarship fund for outstanding young Marin County musicians, balance of drive money is used for artists' fees. Number of concerts given and type of artist presented depends upon the financial result of the drive. The more money subscribed, the more concerts given.

The Marin Music Chest is an educational and cultural project that has had overwhelming success for the past eleven years. The response to the Chest's annual membership drive by the people of Marin county has been more than gratifying, particularly last year, called by many the Chest's most outstanding season. Marin Music Chest workers are not asking for contributions, but are giving Marin City residents the privilege of "buying beauty for themselves and Marin." Detailed information regarding memberships may be had at the Community Building or through Mrs. Billingsley, Mrs. James and Mrs. Walenta.

Service men and women admitted free to all Music Chest concerts.

Mrs. Pendley Is Back Again For Short Visit

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Anderson last week were Mrs. Malcolm Pendley and Mrs. Laura Anderson, mother of Mrs. Pendley, and Mr. Anderson. Mrs. Pendley is well known in Marin City. She has been visiting in Pasadena while her husband was in training as Radio Technician in Mississippi. Pvt. Pendley is with the Army Air Corps. Mrs. Pendley and her mother left Marin City to join Pvt. Pendley in Denver, Colo., as he has been granted a furlough before leaving for overseas.

Mrs. Pendley, who has been in the south since February, reported that the time passed very quickly as she was busy with Red Cross work, as Staff Assistant and also assisting in the recent Red Cross War Fund drive. Mrs. Pendley has not decided whether she will remain in Denver, or return to Marin City. We would be lucky in Marin City if she decides in our favor.

Mystery Thriller Planned By Dramatists

A mystery thriller for seventh and eighth grade dramatists is on the way, according to announcement this week.

Plays have been ordered and tryouts will soon be under way for a stage production of the spooky drama. This will be the first undertaking of the new theatre group for young people.

In addition to actors, the group will need stage hands, musicians, sign painters, scenery designers, and sound effects personnel.

Plans call for a full-length dramatic feature, done entirely by the youngsters, down to the last detail of staging.

Interested seventh and eighth graders may drop a line to P.O. Box 236, or leave a note in "The Marin Citizen" news boxes at the rental office and market, stating preference for stage activities. Notices for tryouts will be issued as soon as the play scripts arrive.

Back After South Seas Trip

Mrs. Lucille Hutchason, one of the vegetable market's cordial clerks, just received word from her son who is stationed on a Navy vessel working out of Pearl Harbor. Young Richard, 1-c-s, is back in port again after a voyage to the South Seas.

A former Marinship pipe welder, Seaman Hutchason has been in the Navy for six months.

The latest, and final, figure on the Red Cross War Fund contributions here is $2031.19, announces chairman Mrs. W. C. Billingsley.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Giddens and son Jimmy of A16-125, returned Saturday from a week's visit with Jimmy's grandparents at San Jose.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Dinsmore visited their daughter in San Jose last week-end; son Glenn returned with them. He had been visiting his sister for a week.

New Group Of Women To Meet

The new Volunteer Women's organization will hold its regular meeting next Tuesday in the lounge of the Community Building. The meeting is called for 8 p.m. and will actually begin at 8 p.m., making it unique among Marin City meetings. All women are invited.

Several new activities will be discussed, among them a non-partisan political information booth to be established near the store during the week before the primary election, for the purpose of giving new residents in California the facts about the State elections.

It is hoped that this meeting organization that will be acceptable to the members, and will be easier to say than Marin City Volunteer Women.

Mr. William Koskie and wife with their small daughter, left for Aurora, Minn. Mr. Koskie is going into the army, and Mrs. Koskie will remain there with her small daughter for the duration.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hayes and family have returned to their former home in Cheyenne, Wyoming.

By PEGGY BILLINGSLEY

Mrs. W. C. Billingsley has volunteered her services at the bi-annual Red Cross Rummage Sale to be held Thursday, Friday and Saturday at the salesroom of Bianco's Garage, 4th St., San Rafael.

Entire proceeds from the sale are used for relief work in the county. Bargain prices are available on men's, women's and children's clothing, household goods, furniture, rugs, books and jewelry. All goods sold have been donated, and over a hundred women will assist Mrs. Percy Gray, chairman, in selling.

Mrs. Bethene White and young son Tommy are back in Marin City after a brief stay in Idaho where they planned to make their home while Mrs.

White's husband fights out the war in the South Pacific.

But Bethene changed her mind about living up North, decided Marin City isn't so bad after all, and is now greeting old friends and customers on her vegetable department job.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Lounsberry and small daughter have moved to Fresno. They were forced to move on account of their daughter's health. Mr. Lounsberry, Councilman from District D, will be greatly missed as he has been one of Marin City's most energetic, enthusiastic workers.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hill left for Eureka, where Mrs. Hill will remain while Mr. Hill does his bit for Uncle Sam in the Navy.

Hedda Hopper: Looking at HOLLYWOOD

A MODEST four room bungalow on a Hollywood side street houses a Hollywood phenomenon—an actor who spurns stardom. Living in bachelor untidiness, Barry Fitzgerald at 50 is taking piano lessons and trying his utmost to duck and squirm from under the newest Hollywood ack-ack that has him as its target because he all but stole Bing Crosby's newest picture, "Going My Way?"

Barry Fitzgerald

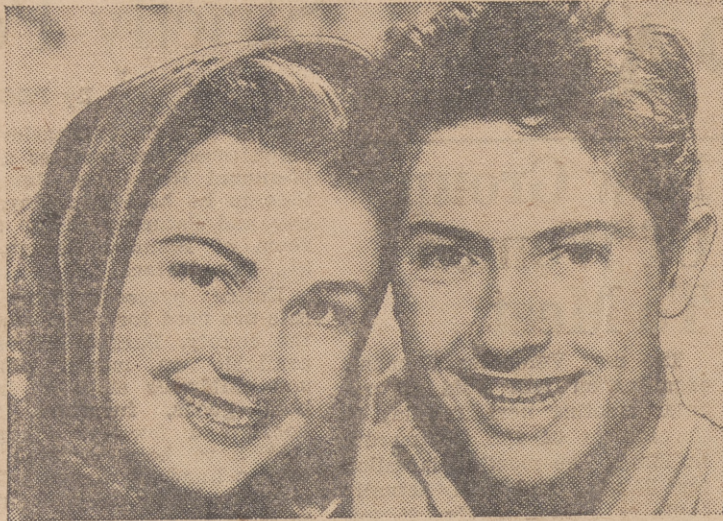

Hollywood has "discovered" Fitzgerald—and how that tickles this Irishman's sense of irony!

"That makes four times I've been discovered," he chortled as we plopped into a bamboo porch chair to try to take the man apart for the clinic that cannot believe that this fantastic city called Hollywood can produce one so impervious to flattery, so uncaring for the fat financial awards stardom spawns, and so utterly, utterly out of step with the rest of the boys and girls who march in the parade of the Rock Candy Mountaineers.

Getting to Be a Habit

"The first discovery was back in 1915 in Dublin when I sneaked into the extra ranks of the Abbey Players and in two weeks won a speaking part, to wit, 'This way, sire.' Then London discovered me. New York did likewise in 1931. And now, almost 30 years after the Dublin debut with a spear, I am again discovered. Under the yardstick of values, I suppose, none but the Hollywood discovery can be considered official. I'm not excited—I'm amused."

Fitzgerald is a gnomelike little man with shaggy eyebrows that defy gravity, training, or barber shop cajoleries. He still has a sufficient growth of blond hair, running wild on lower 40 and follow up on crown. He has deep-set quartz blue eyes. He squints at you, but the eyes are lighted with laughter.

He loves caps—old ones. He fondles his motorcycle with loving hands. He has two suits of clothes and 11 pairs of overalls. He keeps no clippings. He answers no fan mail. And, because he frequents only the unknown byways of the Spanish section of Los Angeles, he is free of autograph hunters. He seldom attends movies and never goes to see those in which he has a part.

A Tree and Romance Grow

The Week's Best Shows

By ANNIE OAKLEY

The heroism of a Russian town as the Nazi armies drive across it forms the dramatic theme of "The North Star," Samuel Goldwyn's new RKO Radio release and one of the most stirring films of recent years.

The first picture to reveal to American theatre-goers what the Nazi invasion was really like, this impressive offering deals with the people of North Star village, near the Rumanian border, before and after the blitz.

A group of young people are starting out on a walking tour to Kiev when the first wave of Stukas comes over, bombs them and goes on to wreak destruction in the village. The youngsters soon find themselves entrusted with the task of getting a load of arms to their guerrilla comrades, avoiding the German patrols and supply forces.

124 Donors Of Blood Last Friday

Marin City Center of the Red Cross Blood Donor Service obtained 124 pints of blood essential for life saving plasma, used by the armed forces, on Friday, April 14, at the Community House, according to Mrs. W. C. Billingsley, Marin City Blood Donor chairman.

Volunteer donors were from Marin City, Marinship Corporation, Sausalito and Southern Marin County communities.

Mrs. James San Jule, Nurses' Aide, and Mrs. Dale Dinsmore, staff assistant, assisted the volunteer Blood Donor Staff.

Next visit of the Mobile Unit to Marin City is Friday, May 12. For appointments telephone Sausalito 1180; Rental Office, Marin City, or see Mrs. Billingsley at A15-116 after office hours.

Small Fire Causes Residents To Fear Air Raid

A small fire caused approximately $50 damage to the J. T. Treshauer apartment in Unit A37 last Monday.

Centered under the sink, the blaze was apparently started by a burning match or cigarette tossed into the garbage just before the family left to visit friends in an adjoining building.

An eight-signal alarm was answered by volunteer firemen, who assisted Fire Chief Rolf Bremer in extinguishing the flames.

Accompanied by an airplane flying overhead, the extended alarm led many residents to believe an air raid was in progress.

The alarm was turned in by Ruby Willis, the first neighbor to spy smoke pouring out from under the door.

Arthur D'Ettel Gives Up His Model Class

Arthur D'Ettel is now working days, owing to shift changes at the shipyard, and will therefore be forced to give up his excellent airplane model class, announced the Recreation Department this week.

The group will continue to meet and build planes, pending this discovery of a new volunteer.

D'Ettel has contributed much time and effort to the class. His absence will be keenly felt by the boys who worked with him, and by the Recreation Department, said Mrs. Martha Roberts.

Square Dance This Saturday

There will positively be a Square Dance this Saturday night, in the Council room. The question of when to meet will be discussed, as well as questions of music, records, and so on. Dancing will begin at 8:00.

"To do everthing in our power to help win the war. To promote the welfare and community spirit of Marin City."

JAMES SAN JULE, Editor.
DOROTHY SMITH, City Editor.
GALE TAFFINDER, Advertising Manager.

"The Marin Citizen" is delivered each week to the homes of more than 6000 war workers and their families. It is the only newspaper published in the second largest city of Marin County.

Subscription Rate: $2.50 a year. Advertising rates on application.

Our Move Next!

Marin City is so far ahead of most communities in most things which help the war effort that it is almost unbelievable to find no organized salvage drive in the community.

The nation's fighting forces are desperately in need of the products which are made from waste paper, fats and grease, tin cans and other waste scrap. It seems criminal that these items so necessary to the war effort are thrown away or burned in Marin City.

Several tons of waste paper a week are burned in our community. The throwaways found in our mail boxes, which are tossed unread into the post office waste paper barrels, would account for a major portion of any city's waste paper collections. Added to these discarded throwaways, which we presume are burned, is all the rest of the paper which an average American family collects in the course of a week. All of this waste paper is valuable to the war effort and should be saved for organized collections.

Then there is the scrap tin which is thrown away in such great quantity here. Every house discards its tin cans and they are carted away to the dump. They should be saved to make cartridges and other necessary materials of war. This calls for organization.

The grease collections have never been very startling here even though every pound of grease turned in results in the turning over of two red ration points to the housewife who saved it. Here again we need organization and a realization of the need for turning in all kinds of waste materials to aid the war effort.

We understand that a conference was held in Marin City this week to better organize all of the community's salvage activities. We hope that the result of the conference will be to bring our community up to the same state of perfection in salvage work that it has arrived at in other war work.

One paper bundle a week, one tablespoonful of grease and one tin can a week from every resident of Marin City would be a good average.

We hope to have a progress report on this subject next week.

GANGWAY!

Mike's Column

By MICHAEL B. SMITH

Though most of the folks in our town are as yet unaware of it, a first rate scrap of major importance to Marin City residents is beginning to take form.

It is a purely local matter involving local personalities and for that very reason it is likely to inspire much of the misunderstanding and bitterness that often develops in bush league politics.

So before too much is said to confuse the real issues, these facts should be known.

On May 19 the voters of the Sausalito School District will go to the polls to pass judgment on the qualifications of two opposing candidates for membership on the board. Sausalito and Marin City are the two main centers of population in the district.

Robert Anderson of Sausalito is the incumbent running to succeed himself.

He is opposed by Daniel Allen of Marin City.

So far in this campaign neither of the candidates have shown any desire to do anything but run on the basis of his own qualifications for the office.

Allen's candidacy comes of a growing feeling on the part of the folks here that in as much as the majority of the children in the district attend the Marin City School, it is only fair and reasonable that Marin City should have some official representation on the board under whose authority the school is run.

He has consented to run with the sole desire to effectively serve the community in which he lives.

Certainly the presence of a Marin City resident would bring to the board a better knowledge with which to meet the education problems in this district.

Unfortunately it is becoming increasingly apparent that some of the supporters of Anderson are determined to defeat Allen not on the basis of whether or not he is qualified to do the job but simply on the basis that he lives "on the wrong side of the tracks", as far as they are concerned.

It is not because they have any personal objection to him. Just the thought of anyone from Marin City being elected to any public office is too painful for them to contemplate.

It is not because Mr. Allen lacks the formal educational requirements, because he is a graduate of Yale University.

Being little more than an illiterate myself, it is entirely possible that I have been wrong all these years, but I have always been told that Yale is known as a pretty fair country

Furthermore, he took graduate work at Stanford. Extensive travel in Europe has also contributed to his education. I could go on in this vein, except that it is rather pointless unless the whole campaign were to be waged only on the basis of pure snobbery.

In which case, at least on the basis of superficial evidence, the local boy has the bulge on Mr. Anderson.

But the thinking people who are supporting Allen have no desire to have the election decided on any such basis. And least of all Allen, himself.

His ability to use common sense and his willingness to serve the public good, as exhibited by his work in Marin City, plus his years of experience in the teaching profession are some of the reasons folks here feel he should be elected.

Recently the U. S. government granted over $56,000,000 to this school district. A fairer share of that money might be spent to improve the school here, if one of the members lived in this town and therefore had a more intimate knowledge of our school problems.

In the past the writer has noted the Sausalito school board has shown, on a few occasions, a certain lack of understanding and sympathy for Marin City when some matters involving the local school and child care center came before the board.

There is now a rumor in circulation to the effect that certain sinister forces in Marin City are using Allen as an instrument thru which they are going to get control of the school board so as to float a bond issue.

Then after the war they plan to leave Sausalito taxpayers with a mountainous debt.

On the face of it, this is too absurd to deserve a denial. It only serves to show the lengths to which we can expect some people to go.

The fact is we are not a bunch of foreigners bent on invading the rights of the natives.

We only seek to assume our full responsibility as citizens. Marin City is coming of age. The fact that over 1100 voters have registered here, proves that.

So far, Anderson has presented only one main reason why he should be elected and Allen defeated.

This is it:
Before he was appointed there were differences of opinion on the school board. Now, says he, there is nothing but harmony.

For which fact, we would

THE SOAP BOX

By THE EDITOR

This week we're going to blow our horn a bit.

Recently there have been a few questions as to who publishes "The Marin Citizen" and who is responsible for seeing to it that the news is written each week and that the paper gets to every one in Marin City.

"The Marin Citizen" is a newspaper written by and for the residents of Marin City. It is the official paper of the Marin City Council. It is a non-profit, self-supporting enterprise.

A committee appointed by the Marin City Council serves as the paper's board of directors. That is the council's editorial committee.

The housing authority and the management of the project are in no way connected with "The Marin Citizen."

Fourteen carrier boys and girls deliver the paper to every home in the community every Friday afternoon. They are the ones who get the full benefit of the 15 or 20 cents you give them each month.

"The Marin Citizen" is recognized as the liveliest and best weekly newspaper in this part of the State. It is a good reflection of the community itself because the paper only records what the community does and what it stands for.

The paper was started last July by a group of residents who saw the need for a paper in Marin City. It has more than served as a useful organ of public opinion here ever since.

The value of the paper to the community was seen when the paper and the City Council exposed price violations by the local market's former operator and secured his conviction in court—thus saving the residents here many thousands of dollars. The paper's value has been shown many times over also in its announcement of community happenings and its support of war drives.

The paper is what the people of Marin City make it, for it is truly their paper.

"The Marin Citizen" now has an office of its own in the large grey building behind the fire house. Office hours are from 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Thursday. Suggestions, complaints, news items, want ads can be dropped at the office. Or just drop in for a chat. For the next few weeks the office will also be open on Saturday morning from 9 to noon.

We hope to see you soon.

A Letter To The People

THANK YOU MARIN CITY:

Marin City has oversubscribed its 1944 Red Cross War Fund quota of $1500 by $531.13, a total of $2031.13.

This success is due to the generosity of countless Marin Cityans who have given unstintingly of their time, effort and money.

Added to our thanks are the voices of the millions all over the world whose call on the Red Cross can be answered because you and thousands like you have given unselfishly.
